

FEIMATA DAVIS

I am a creative and organized individual who is dedicated and hardworking, reliable and respects confidentiality- I also appreciate a healthy competitive environment, yet can lead a team. Always ready to take up new challenges and strive to archive more in life. I am a strong communicator- with a lot of initiative and who can adapt to many working environments. My vision is the make a change in the fashion industry through my fashion and inspire the next generation.

career objectives

To work in a dynamic organization that enables me to apply my skills learned in fashion design for professional growth and experience in my fashion career.
